

“The Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women”

Animation Script - Education

Brother: Look! Mandy is playing so well.

Father: I didn't expect her to play so well. She has excelled herself today.

Mother: Nowadays, men and women can have equal participation in sports. Girls can compete with boys on the sports field.

CEDAW Robot: That's right!

Family: It's CEDAW!

CEDAW Robot: Yes, I'm CEDAW the Robot. CEDAW stands for the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women. It provides women with protection in the field of education. In addition to sports, both boys and girls can have equal rights in education.

Father: Really? Can you tell us more about it?

CEDAW Robot: Sure. Let me tell you more about the Convention.

MVO: CEDAW Article 10(a)

CEDAW Robot: The Convention ensures to women equal rights with men in the field of education, including pre-school education, primary and secondary education, higher education and all types of vocational training.

MVO: CEDAW Article 10(b)

CEDAW Robot: It also ensures that men and women have access to the same curricula, examinations, teaching staff standard and school premises and equipment of the same quality.

MVO: CEDAW Article 10(c)

CEDAW Robot: The Convention eliminates any stereotype of the roles of men and women in all forms of education.

MVO: CEDAW Article 10(d)

CEDAW Robot: It also ensures that men and women have the same opportunities to benefit from scholarships and other grants.

MVO: CEDAW Article 10(e)

CEDAW Robot: In addition, the Convention ensures that men and women can have equal access to continuing education.

MVO: CEDAW Article 10(g)
