Notes:

- According to part 4.3 of the Guide to Application, prior written approval must be obtained from the Committee on any changes to the approved project, including the content and implementation schedule. If the successful applicant organisation fails to conduct the project as planned and prior approval from the Committee is not obtained, the Committee reserves the right to revoke the sponsorship and require the organisation to refund the amount received (if any).
- 2. According to paragraph 4.2.4 of the Guide to Application, the actual expenditure on any individual items in the approved budget shall not exceed the sponsorship amount granted by the Committee for the approved item concerned. Prior written approval must be obtained from the Committee on any changes to any individual items of approved budget. The Committee reserves the right not to reimburse a successful applicant organisation for any expenditure amounts exceeding the approved amount for the item concerned. If the actual expenditure of the project is within the approved sponsorship amount but the actual expenditure on some individual items exceed the approved amount, the Committee may exercise discretion to reimburse no more than 120% of the approved amount of the individual items should sufficient justification be provided by the successful applicant organisation.
- 3. According to paragraph 2.5.4 of the Guide to Application, once an application has been approved by the Committee, any requests for increase in the total amount of sponsorship will not be considered.
