

Appointment to Committee on Libraries

The Government announced today (May 9) the appointment of Mr Tony Tang Wai-man as a member of the Committee on Libraries from May 9, 2005 to October 31, 2006. Mr Tang is an architect by profession and an ex-Council member of the Hong Kong Institute of Architects.

It is also announced that Mr Ma Kwok-ming has resigned from the membership of the Committee on Libraries in April 2005.

The Committee on Libraries was established in November 2004 to assist the Secretary for Home Affairs to formulate strategies and plans for the development of public library services.

Ends/Monday, May 9, 2005
