

SHA congratulates HK athletes on winning another silver in Asian Games

The Secretary for Home Affairs, Dr Patrick Ho, today (December 8) congratulated Daniel Lee for winning a silver medal in the Men's Triathlon Individual event in the Doha Asian Games.

Dr Ho said: "I am glad that our delegation has achieved good results again. We are all proud of their remarkable performance."

So far the Hong Kong delegation has won 12 medals - two gold, six silver and four bronze in the Asian Games.

Ends/Friday, December 8, 2006