

SHA congratulates HK delegation on winning medals in Asian Games

The Secretary for Home Affairs, Dr Patrick Ho, today (December 14) congratulated the Hong Kong team to the Doha Asian Games on winning one silver and one bronze.

While Angie Tsang got a silver in Women's Nanquan (3 Events Combined), Chan Ka-man received a bronze in Women's Kumite (60kg) earlier on.

Dr Ho said: "Our athletes have worked tirelessly to win honour for Hong Kong, fully demonstrating their sportsmanship."

He expressed admiration for the excellent performance of the Hong Kong delegation to the Doha Asian Games.

Ends/Thursday, December 14, 2006

NNNN