

Come visit the "Cheer for Our Athletes" exhibition at Times Square

*****

Members of the public are invited to visit an exhibition entitled "Cheer for Our Athletes, Invest for Wellness Society" at Times Square, Causeway Bay from today (November 16), to show their support for Hong Kong's athletes.

The exhibition, organised by the Home Affairs Bureau, aims to encourage the public to pledge their support for Hong Kong's athletes, including those who are taking part in the Guangzhou Asian Games.

In addition to an introduction on the Asian Games, the exhibition covers the remarkable achievements of Hong Kong's athletes, as well as policy initiatives to promote sport in Hong Kong. Also on display are videos showing interviews with athletes.

The exhibition is staged at the covered piazza on the ground floor of Times Square, Causeway Bay. It is open to the public from 10am to 8pm from today until November 19.

Members of the public are also welcome to visit a designated webpage at www.showyoursmile.hk and take a photo of their smiling faces cheering for Hong Kong's athletes.

They could also visit Hall 3 of the AsiaWorld-Expo, Hong Kong International Airport from tomorrow (November 17) to November 29 to join the "Show Your Smile" publicity campaign.

Ends/Tuesday, November 16, 2010
