The Secretary for Home Affairs, Mr Tsang Tak-sing, today (November 25) hailed Hong Kong athletes' superb result at the Asian Games, winning one more silver medal in the women's team squash.

"Together with the men's squash team effort in taking a bronze medal yesterday, our squash athletes' extraordinary endeavours in the Games have captured not only medals but also our admiration. Their performance is a shining example of how sport can become an inspiration and motivation for everyone," Mr Tsang said.

The Hong Kong delegation has so far accumulated 38 medals in the Games. The athletes who won medals today are as follows.
